We are Better. Honest.®

Philadelphia Federal Credit Union differs from regular banks because our financial institution is owned by our members. All profits are reinvested in our members by improving our products and services and by offering better rates, fewer fees and low cost loans and mortgages to our members and their immediate families. Once you become a member, you are a member for life, even if you switch jobs. Membership is open to anyone who lives, works, worships and studies in the City of Philadelphia.

We are committed to providing educational resources to the communities we serve. As a not-for-profit institution, we will promote financial literacy to improve individuals' economic well-being. It is our fundamental belief and commitment to offer products and services in order to achieve their goals.
